

Help for People Facing Cancer, Survivors, and Caregivers

The American Cancer Society offers support in your community and online to help you during and after cancer treatment. Below are just some of the resources we provide. Visit cancer.org provide you with referrals to other national resources. Call us at 1-800-227-2345 or visit cancer.org to live chat with us. We can assist in English, Spanish, and more than 200 other languages via a translation service.

A personalized support system

If you or someone you love has been diagnosed with cancer, deciding what's next can be overwhelming. The American Cancer Society can help through ACS CARES™ (Community Access to Resources, Education, and Support), a new patient navigation support program that connects people with quality curated information and one-on-one support. To learn more, download the ACS CARES™ app from Google Play or the App Store.

Educational materials about cancer

Our materials can help you and your loved ones understand your diagnosis, treatment, and potential side effects.

cost to guests. To find a Hope Lodge community near your treatment, contact your doctor, social worker, or patient navigator, or visit cancer.org/hopelodge.

Get peer support online

The Cancer Survivors Network® (CSN) is an online community for people facing cancer, survivors, and caregivers. CSN is available 24/7 for members who support one another, share their personal experiences, and offer practical tips for dealing with the side effects of cancer and its treatment. Visit csn.cancer.org to learn more or become a member.

You don't have to face breast cancer alone

Through the Reach To Recovery® website and mobile app, people facing breast cancer can be matched with